

ZF-101

Classic Freestanding Case

Generally used as a central element, this 4-sided-glass freestanding display case offers optimal view of the displayed objects. Available with both hinged and manual opening, this model can be used for either permanent or temporary exhibits. This case could be dismantled and put to storage.

It comes with several options such as lighting and shelving and can be designed in very large sizes. Solid or back panels can also be a great addition and add flexibility.
